Condensed Bio:

Nathan Crane is an award winning author, inspirational speaker, and conscious filmmaker dedicated to helping every human being experience a healthy, sustainable, meaningful life.

From addiction, dependency, jail, and homelessness, to a profound spiritual awakening becoming a highly sought after international entrepreneur of personal empowerment, Nathan found his life's purpose in helping people experience more health, joy, and fulfillment in their lives -dissolving harmful habits and mental attachments – and experiencing physical, mental, emotional, financial and spiritual transformation.

Nathan has now dedicated his heart, mind, energy, and resources on the co-creation of UNIFY FEST - a 4-day sustainability and conscious music and health festival focused on helping UNIFY humanity for the common good of people, animals, plants, and the planet.
